

Identity Theft Coverage

protecting your good name

Your identity is one of your most valuable assets. It's tied to your family, your finances and your future. And in a world that's becoming more electronic by the day, it's becoming harder and harder to guard.

But there are steps you can take to protect yourself – like investing in identity theft coverage from Grange.

What it is

Grange Identity Theft Coverage gives you immediate peace of mind by providing comprehensive identity theft education, proactive services and one-on-one expert victim assistance to regain your credit and restore your identity. If you're victimized, you can immediately contact the Grange 24-Hour Loss Reporting Center at (800) 445-3030.

How it works

When you protect your good name with Grange, it's reassuring to know that Grange will work on your behalf to:

- Provide a personal advocate who will work with you to restore your identity
- Notify credit bureaus, creditors, government agencies, collectors and others
- Prepare the documents and make the phone calls needed to restore your identity
- Create a comprehensive file of your case to help law enforcement
- Provide a credit report and make follow-up calls
- Give you a full year of weekly credit monitoring through TrueCredit
- Offer a full year of fraud monitoring through my FICO Identity Theft Security for the victims of true identity theft

What else you get

In addition to providing you with a personal advocate, Grange can reimburse you for some of the expenses incurred while restoring your identity, including*:

- Lost wages from time off work to meet with law enforcement, credit agencies or legal counsel
- Attorney fees from merchant or collection agency lawsuits
- Loan re-application fees
- Long-distance phone charges to notify merchants and law enforcement agencies
- Notary costs

Grange covers many risks in life, and with the Grange Identity Theft endorsement you get industry-leading coverage – plus a wealth of expertise to help you restore your credit and your reputation should your identity be stolen.
